Dear Parent

Greetings !

With the mercury soaring high and the summer vacations round the corner, it's the right time to plan your ward's vacations in the best possible way.

We are glad to announce that the school has contacted trained professionals to be in school premises for an exciting and exclusive summer camp from Monday 29th May to 20th June 2017 in the school premises.

Sports activities will be held from Monday to Saturday and Cultural activities from Monday to Friday. The Sports and Cultural activities will be conducted by trained professional coaches who will take their potentials to the next possible level. Final performance of Cultural activities will be held on the last day of camp.

Overall this will be a very productive way for the children to utilize their summer vacations!
